- An international student who has already obtained a Master of Philosophy degree or equivalent and who seeks to undertake another Masters degree by research; and
- An international student who has already commenced the research for their current Masters or Doctorate prior to 1 January of the year for which the scholarship is to be awarded.

International Postgraduate Research Scholarship (IPRS)

- The scholarship is provided to cover the tuition fees set by Murdoch University for each year of the course.
- This is limited to three years for students enrolled in a Doctor of Philosophy and two years for a Master of Philosophy.
- Murdoch University will cover the living allowance and health cover while studying at the University.

Murdoch International Postgraduate Scholarship (MIPS)

- Murdoch University will provide the successful applicant with the Tuition fees set by the University for each year of the course
- Murdoch University will provide a living allowance for each year of the course and health insurance premiums
- This is limited to three years for students enrolled in a Doctor of Philosophy and two years for a Master of Philosophy.

Requirements

All applicants must complete the postgraduate research application form fully. You must:

- Include original or certified copies of all academic transcripts and confirmation of graduation.
- Make sure that your referees submit their report forms as soon as possible.
- Enclose details of past research experience and a research proposal for the PhD or MPhil.
- Enclose proof that you meet the University's English Language requirements.

Closing date

All applications must reach The Student Centre by 30 September. Both successful and unsuccessful applicants will be notified in late December.

Declaration

I wish to be considered by Murdoch University for an International Postgraduate Research Scholarship. I understand that by applying for this scholarship my application for both admission and the IPRS will only be considered in December.

If I am unsuccessful in gaining the IPRS or MIPS, I still wish to be considered for admission only:
