APPLICATION FOR AN EXTENSION TO A SCHOLARSHIP

Applications for extensions to either an Australian Postgraduate Award, Australian Postgraduate Award (Industry) or Murdoch University Research Studentship can be submitted to HDR Services. Extensions of up to a six month period will be considered on individual merit. Only those students enrolled in a PhD can apply for an extension to their award, and will only be considered where the research has been delayed by circumstances beyond the candidate's control and are NOT of a personal nature.

Eligibility

To be eligible for an extension to your scholarship you must have all data (or information) collection/analysis and field work* completed and have at least half of the chapters of your thesis written to thesis quality at the time of application. You will also be required to explain why you need an extension to your scholarship and you will need to provide a detailed plan that explains how you will finish within the extension period. The plan should provide a thesis outline along with information on what thesis chapters have been completed to thesis quality, as well as target dates for the completion of each of the remaining chapters to draft and thesis quality.

 in the case of a creative theses, the creative work should be complete to thesis quality , as well as a substantial amount (at least half) of the chapters of the exegesis written to thesis quality at the time of application*

Your supervisor will be asked to confirm that the timetable to completion is realistic and that they will be able provide support to you in this intensive period up to the completion of your thesis.

Applications for an extension to your scholarship need to be submitted to HDR Services at least 4 weeks before the 3 year expiry of your scholarship. Applications for extension received more than one month after the expiry of the scholarship will not be considered.

Scholarship Extension Payments

The maximum value of the award for 2011 is $10,510. This award will be paid as a fortnightly stipend.
