

2010 Women's Service Guild PhD Top-Up Scholarship

The Women's Service Guild of Western Australia was established as a voluntary organisation for the purpose of promoting the interests of women in WA. The Guild, after almost one hundred years of service, is no longer in operation but has endowed top-up scholarships to support research that will specifically benefit women and children.

Applications are invited from Australian doctoral candidates whose area of postgraduate research training supports the interest of women and children. Research candidates from any field of study, with a research project of benefit to women and children in WA, are encouraged to apply.

These top-up scholarships are available at
Curtin University of Technology
Murdoch University
The University of Western Australia
Edith Cowan University

Applicants must be applying for admission and scholarship to full-time candidature for the degree of PhD and possess a First Class Honours degree or equivalent. Applicants currently completing Honours will also be eligible to apply.

Current PhD students are ineligible to apply.

Only applicants who are also successful in gaining an Australian Postgraduate Award for 2010 will be eligible.

Benefits: $8,000 (non-taxable per annum)

Tenure: The award is for a maximum of three years. An extension of up to 6 months may be granted.

Application: Your application form should be submitted along with your application for the Australian Postgraduate Award at your nominated University. You must submit an extra copy of your APA application to attach to this form.
